- Exhibitors in Trail and Western Pleasure are required to wear a cowboy hat (or helmet). If the horse is over 5 years of age, it must be ridden with only one hand on the reins
- Tack for Western Pleasure and Trail classes require split or romal reins, but no cavescos or ribbons
- Performance class horses should be clean and neatly trimmed. A western saddle with a horn is mandatory and cavescos and ribbons are appropriate
- If riding western in Country Pleasure, requirements are the same as for Western Pleasure and Trail
- Exhibitors should be dressed in Western Show Attire with long-sleeved shirts and western style trousers (Colored denim jeans are okay but ordinary blue jeans are not show ring attire). Boots are required. Spurs are optional. On hot days show management may allow short sleeves, but shirts must have a collar.
- Exhibitors in English Pleasure are required to use English Tack and Attire consisting of English saddles, bridles and bits as well as hunt, dressage or saddle seat attire, plus a hat.
